Sinopsis

We are We are pleased to present a selection of our most outstanding recent titles, carefully chosen for their potential to resonate with readers worldwide. These books reflect the richness, rigor, and diversity of our publishing program, which spans the arts, humanities, social sciences, and more. This includes significant contributions to contemporary discussions on sustainability, peace, and conflict. As one of the most recognized university presses in Colombia and Latin America, we have built a solid reputation for publishing meaningful works —those that critically engage with current issues, offer new perspectives, and bring academic knowledge closer to the general public. This catalog features titles published between 2020 and 2025, providing foreign publishers, agents, and rights managers with a great opportunity to discover authors and ideas that bridge borders. We look forward to forging new partnerships to help these books reach wider audiences and connect with the readers who need them most.Explore our catalog and join us in sharing these vital contributions with the world.Juan Camilo González Galvis. Editor-in-Chief
